

Article Style Paragraph

Some girls wear makeup to enhance their self-confidence. Most girls feel much more confident when they wear makeup, this lack of self-esteem is likely due to the effects of social media girls wear it for fun.

Most adults who are against girls wearing makeup often forget that makeup is a form of art and is a way to express yourself. On average girls wear BB Cream, Concealer, powder, mascara, something on their lips and occasionally eyeliner. Overall message is you can wear makeup as long as you are comfortable in it. It is sensible for your makeup to be appropriate for school, but you wear whatever you're comfortable in, depending on your schools rules.

