

Special points of interest:

- Singing competitions... SEE WHO WON!
- Winning house?!
- Team captains... what were they wearing?!
- Fresh prince of Bridgend!
- Chair person and crowned winner?
- House colors?
- Special thanks

Reporters names: Lara

Volume 1, Issue 1

Cynffigs celebratory Eisteddfod!

On Tuesday the 1st of March Cynffigs traditional eisteddfod took place. There were many competitions that were adrenaline pumping for the crowd!

Throughout the day there were many offstage and on-stage competitions such as singing, dancing and other enjoyable enticing acts. The offstage competitions mainly consisted of results and shouting "OGGY OGGY OGGY... OI OI OI!" To see if the crowd was still 'alive'.

During the eisteddfod the houses points were checked, the winning team overall was Flint, Powys were 2nd, Morgannwg in 3rd, Dyfydd were 4th and Gwent in last place! This was the first time for Flint to ever win and Dyfydd to ever come under 1st!

In the eisteddfod all points are added for taking part in the offstage competitions. Any entries you give in ears you a point for your team. The person with the most points wins the crown and the person with the most onstage points wins the chair person.

The winners were Molly and Josh! Da iawn Molly a Josh! Molly is in Dyfydd house and Josh is in Flint. They contributed tremendously.

In the eisteddfod a boy named Chad from Powys house made a rap about Bridgend and named it "the fresh prince of Bridgend"! He earned a total of thirty points for his team! Da iawn Chad!

There were many competitions that everyone enjoyed. The contestants were amazing and gave a tremendous effort!

House captains and special thanks!

The house captains did it yet again by dressing up in their house colours and getting the crowd pumped!

They came out and got the crowd cheering and clapping along to the song played to their costumes.

All the house captains were amazing! Da iawn pawb! Everyone had a great day and enjoyed tremendously! I would like to give special thanks to Miss Geddes, Miss Sebury and Mrs Crago for pulling out all the stops yet again this year!

I know how much everyone enjoyed and on behalf of all the staff and pupils here at Cynffig I would like to thank you all!

All the houses at Cynffig joining in with the events taking place!

