

World Sports.

We will be bringing you all the Worlds sports news and school sport news in this report.

On Saturday after noon Jamie Carragher a sky sports pundit and ex Liverpool defender spat at a 14 year old girl after Manchester United's victory over the reds and has been suspended till the end of the season. Eddie Jones the England rugby head coach apologises after rant over the welsh and Irish rugby teams. Staying onto the six nations Ireland are the six nations champions after a 28-8 win over Scotland and are aiming for a 3rd grand slam title when they play England this weekend. Wales made a crushing 38:14 victory the Azzuri. And France with a close 22:16 over England which lead to Irelands title.

Eddie Jones apologised after ranting at Wales and Ireland rugby teams

Jamie Carragher suspended for the rest of the football season from sky sports.

Football: Manchester City made another huge step towards the Premier League title after a 26th win of the season. Manchester United , Tottenham and Chelsea have been knocked out of the Champions league after some heart breaking defeats, but Man city and Liverpool keep marching on after two massive win. In the Europa League Arsenal made a crucial 2-0 win in Milan. Welshman Mark Hughes has been appointed Southampton manager after the departure of Mauricio Pellegrino.

The new Southampton manager Mark Hughes.

Man Utd embarrassed by Sevilla in Manchester.

School Sporting news:

Here are the results from the year 8 school rugby team after they won the Ospreys plate final:

In the first game of the schools rugby season Cynffig made a brilliant start to the year with a 27-7 win over Pencoed school. After a brilliant start Cynffig were on the way down after being hammered by Dderwen 59-10. Next up was a trip to Bae Baglan school which ended in another defeat but in a superb 50-45 result. The team got the year back on track when they beat Dyffryn 42-27. Cynffig's form continued when Brynryrion fell out to a 29-0 win for the cynffig boys. Porthcawl our rivals were the losers as Cynffig won once again in a 20-12 victory. It was time for the plate final as we played the best of the west Cymtawe as Cynffig scored three late tries in a 20-5. On Tuesday the boys were back playing again after another win against Dyffryn which ended 36-17 after some first half tries from Cynffig.

Written by Oliver and Zack.